FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

"Bay Area Laundromats", a unique public affairs radio program has had the rather novel duty of rating and reviewing local laundromats. Rating categories for the weekly reviews are Parking convenience, Cleanliness, Cost, Washing convenience, and Ambience. Hosted by KFJC's Lou York, the program has been on the air for over two years and has reviewed over eighty (80) laundromats.

With the advent of Designer laundromats (or Cushy Coin-Ops), the need to search for laundering comfort is "no longer a necessity", says Lou York. The show is putting on a final "Bay Area Laundromats Blowout", a farewell party at the number one rated laundromat. The venue is the Oasis Laundry at 1380 N. Winchester Blvd. (on the corner of Winchester and Newhall in Santa Clara).

The show is called "Surfin' at the Oasis" and is sponsored by:

"Bay Area Laundromats",

Radio station KFJC 89.7 FM

and Surf Laundry Detergent

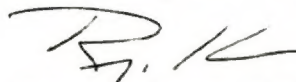

A seven dollar KFJC donation at the door gets you :

1. admission to see the two hottest 'surf' bands in the area: "The SHOCKWAVES" and "Sharkbait"
2. a Limited Edition KFJC T-Shirt
3. a box of SURF Laundry Detergent

People who bring a load of laundry get to see the show free, and if they are wearing a bathing suit, they get their first load of laundry done for free too.

The date is Friday, July 17 from 7 till 11pm. For more information on this event, please feel free to contact me at KFJC, (415) 960-4260.
